The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 498(A) of IPC and 4 of Dowry Prohibition Act, 1961, in Crime No.3 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioners harassed the defacto complainant and they demanded more dowry from the defacto complainant. It is also alleged that the petitioners threatened her with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that already the petitioners were granted anticipatory bail by this Court on 01.04.2022. However, the petitioners were unable to execute the sureties within the time stipulated by this Court. Therefore, the petitioners have again filed the present petition seeking for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor admitted that the petitioners were earlier granted anticipatory bail by this Court. However, the petitioners have not executed the sureties as directed by Court.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Additional Mahila Court, Salem, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.50,000/- (Rupees fifty thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
