The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b) and 506(i) IPC r/w Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.207 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is a widow, working in a Tiruchengode Municipality. While that being so, the petitioner developed friendship with her. Due to family circumstances, the defacto complainant started avoiding him. Due to which, the petitioner abused her and threatened her with dire consequences. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner threatened the defacto complainant with dire consequences. He would further submit that the petitioner also lodged a counter complaint as against the defacto complainant. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioner also lodged counter complaint against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tiruchengode, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent
