.. Respondents

This case came up for settlement before the Lok Adalat. Both parties are present. The learned counsel for the appellant Mr.P.Kothandaraman; the officials of the second respondent Insurance Company and the learned counsel for the 2nd respondent M/s.A.Kency Nirmala are present. After mutual discussion, negotiation, mediation and conciliation between both parties, they arrived at a compromise to settle the matter as follows:

TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.6,97,201/- with interest at 7.5% per annum from the date of filing of the claim petition, i.e., 10.08.2017 till the realisation, payable by the second respondent. It is represented by the learned counsel for the appellant/claimant that an amount of Rs. 9,00,000/- has already been deposited before the Tribunal.

2. Not satisfied with the award of the Tribunal, the claimant / appellant has preferred the present appeal for enhancement.

3. It is represented by the learned counsel for the appellant/claimant that an amount of Rs.9,00,000/- was already been deposited before the Tribunal by the insurance company and the same was withdrawn the claimant.

4. Now, after due deliberation and consultation, both the parties have agreed to a sum of Rs.3,00,000/- (Rupees three lakhs only) without any interest as compensation.

3. The second respondent / Insurance Company is directed to deposit the additional award amount within a period of eight weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

the additional award amount without filing any formal petition. The Award is passed accordingly.

5.The Tribunal is directed to issue the cheque to the party concerned on proper identification in accordance with the terms of the award, without insisting on any formal permission petition. The Civil Miscellaneous Appeal is disposed of accordingly.
