The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b), 324, 506(i) of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Women's Harassment Act in Crime No.147 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant and the petitioners are relatives. Due to family dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that due to family dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the de-facto complainant, where the petitioners had attacked the de-facto complainant causing simple injuries. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Sholinghur, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
