The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 147, 342, 323, 324, 366 @ 147, 148, 323, 324, 365, 352 of IPC, in Crime No.182 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused kidnapped the defacto complainant and detained him in remote place for recovering money. It is also alleged that the accused persons attacked the defacto complainant and threatened with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there are totally 7 accused in which the petitioner is arrayed as A5. The petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries and the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 31.06.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Tiruchengode, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for
