The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 448, 294(b), 324, 506(ii), 307 of IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.145 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant are relatives. Due to family dispute, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. It is also alleged that the petitioners entered into the house of the defacto complainant and abused the defacto complainant and her brother in filthy language and attacked the defacto complainant and her family members with iron rod, wooden log and other weapons. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there are totally 14 accused in which the petitioners are arrayed as A1 to A4 and A6 to A11. Due to family dispute, the petitioners entered into the house of the defacto complainant and attacked the defacto complainant and her family members. He would also submit that it is a case of case in counter. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen
