The petitioner, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 464, 465, 468, 471, 406, 420, 323 of IPC in Crime No. 12 of 2020, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner has transferred a sum of Rs.2,00,000/- from the sister of the defacto complainant and also used the credit card. When the defacto complainant questioned him, the petitioner told her that he already got married and threatened that he would put bomb and kill her entire family. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner had love affair with the defacto complainant and subsequently they got married on 24.08.2019. The petitioner cheated to the tune of Rs.8,00,000/- from the defacto complainant and also used the credit card. When the defacto complainant questioned him, the petitioner told her that he already got married and threatened her. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Additional Mahila Court, Egmore, Chenani, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of
