Crl.O.P.No.18931 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 294(b) and 307 of IPC in Crime No.434 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant and his friend one Karan was talking near by to Kaattupakkam Atco Nagar-Jeevar Nagar Water Tank, at that time, the accused piercingly at them, the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, thereby, wordy quarrel occurred between them, following which, the petitioner along with accused persons abused him and attacked him by using knife and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with others have attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He would further submit that the injured has discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim has discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
