CrI.O.P.No.19195 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 506(i) of IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamilnadu Prohibition of Charging Exorbitant Interest Act in Crime No. 264 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant borrowed a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- from the petitioner with interest of 10% each and every day and the defacto complainant paid a sum of Rs.1000/- to the petitioner for the last one year, so far, he has paid total sum of Rs.3,00,000/- and after receiving the same, the petitioner has demanded the principal amount along with interest amount and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner after receiving the amount of Rs.3,00,000/- from the defacto complainant has demanded principal amount along with interest and threatened him with dire consequences. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court-II, Nagapattinam on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory
