The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 307 of IPC, in Crime No.227 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and other accused asked money from the defacto complainant's father. When the same was refused by him, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant's father in filthy language and when the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also attacked him with hands and caused injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there are totally 3 accused in which the petitioner is arrayed as A1. Due to money dispute, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant and his father and also attacked the defacto complainant with hands and caused injuries and the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 07.07.2022. He further submitted that the petitioner is having 7 previous cases pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the bad antecedents of the petitioner, the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required in this case. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
