Crl.O.P.No.19294 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147,148, 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.75 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. There are totally seven accused involved in this case, in which, the petitioners are arrayed as A1 to A5. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence, there was a group quarrel between two groups in which, the petitioner's family members were involved, at that time, the defacto complainant intervened into and enquired about the problem between them, but, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant since he has supported the rival group of the petitioners. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. There was a case in counter. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
