The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 427 and 506(ii) IPC and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.251 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 09.07.2022 at about 10.00 p.m, when the defacto complainant was standing in front of her house at that time the petitioners started abusing the defacto complainant and damaged the street light and thrown stones at her house and broken the tiles, when the defacto complainant questioned them, they abused her in filthy language and assaulted her and her family members. Thereby, they sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and her family members and abused them in filthy language. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Additional Mahalir Neethimandram, Judicial Magistrate Level, Thiruvallur, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties
