The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 324 and 506(i) of IPC, in Crime No.527 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that while the defacto complainant was cultivating in his land, a vehicle consists of vegetable entered into his land. During that time, the petitioners along with other accused obstructed that vehicle and also attacked the defacto complainant and his father with sticks and threatened them with dire consequences. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that there are totally 4 accused in which the petitioners are arrayed as A3 and A4. Due to civil dispute, the petitioners and other accused attacked the defacto complainant and his father with sticks. He would further submit that no one has sustained any injuries. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Mettupalayam, on condition that each of the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten
