The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 365 and 506(i) IPC and Sections 10 and 11 of Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006 and Sections 8 and 10 of the POCSO Act, in Crime No.130 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 16.09.2021, the defacto complainant and the victim both were married and lived at the defacto complainant's house. Thereafter, the victim left from his house along with 18 sovereigns of gold jewels. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioner is the father of the victim. The victim left out from the defacto complainant's house with 18 sovereigns of golden jewels.

Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Cheyyur, Chengalpattu District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
