Crl.O.P.No.19284 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 379, 427, 448 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.80 of 2022 seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that due to land dispute between the 1st petitioner and one Perumal who is the brother-in-law of the defacto complainant, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with broom sticks, threatened him with dire consequence and the 1st accused grabbed a sum of Rs.15,000/- from the defacto complainant. It is further alleged that the accused were joined together, trespassed into the defacto complainant's house and caused damage to his LED TV Home Theatre, door, window and bike and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has taken treatment as out patient. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has taken treatment as out patient, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
