Crl.O.P.No.19560 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324, 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.169 of 2012, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners and the defacto complainant belongs to the same village and the first petitioner/A1 is the current president of the village. It is alleged that there was wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant regarding previous enmity, due to which, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with deadly weapons, threatened him with dire consequences and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
