The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) r/w 4 of Women Harassment Act, in Crime No.242 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is the wife of 1st petitioner. The 1st petitioner and the defacto complainant did not have any smooth relationship and they filed divorce petition. The 2nd and 3rd petitioners were colleagues of the 1st petitioner and there was wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant. Due to which, the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and threatened her with criminal intimidation thereby, she sustained injuries. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) would submit that the petitioners assaulted the defacto complainant and abused in filthy language and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
