Crl.O.P.No.20017 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.254 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to business rivalry, the petitioner along with others attacked the defacto complainant with deadly weapons, threatened him and also caused injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that this is the petitioner's 2nd bail petition, this Court granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions vide order dated 01.07.2022 in Crl.OP.No.15108 of 2022, but, he does not execute the sureties in time and the time to comply with the condition got expired. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner has attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him and the injured has discharged from the hospital. He would further this Court already granted anticipatory bail to the petitioner, he did not comply with the condition as directed by this Court. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim has discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days
