2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant with regard to the continuation of previous dispute and enmity, due to which, the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with deadly weapons, threatened him with dire consequences and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Kanchepuram on condition that the petitioner
