Crl.O.P.No.19578 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506 (ii) of IPC, in Crime No.113 of 2022 seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that accused/A1 and the defacto complainant are close relatives and there was a family dispute between them, due to which, the petitioners/A2 and A3 who are the friends of A1 have abused the defacto complainant and his friend with filthy language, assaulted them with broken beer bottle, threatened them with dire consequences and also caused injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has taken treatment as out patient, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Alandur, Kancheepuram District on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail
