The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondents police for alleged offences punishable under Sections 406, 420 r/w 34 of IPC, in crime No.694 of 2016 on the file of the second respondent, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners borrowed Rs.20,00,000/- from the defacto complainant. When the same was demanded, the petitioners issued a bank cheque. However, when it was presented, the same was dishonoured due to insufficient fund.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that false complaint has been given against the petitioners and they have nothing to do with the said allegations. He further submitted that Interstate Anticipatory bail may be granted to them to enable them to move the appropriate jurisdictional Court in Kerala for necessary relief.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant inter-state interim anticipatory bail to the
