The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Section 7(1) Lotteries Regulation Act, 1998 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.451 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that the petitioner was in illegal possession of banned Lottery Tickets. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that A1 and A2 were already arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that there are totally four accused involved in this case, in which, the petitioner is arrayed as A3. The petitioner was in illegal possession of banned Lottery Tickets. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
