Crl.O.P.No.19929 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.241 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 19.06.2022, the petitioner picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant and abused him threatened the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that there is a difference of opinion in the internal administration of the church among the petitioner and the defacto complainant, due to which, the defacto complainant has preferred a false complaint against the petitioner. He would further submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner without obtaining permission of the Chairman and Committee organized a worship service in the venue. Except the present case, three previous cases are pending against the petitioner and several complaints have been received and the same was enquired by the respondent police. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-III, Coimbatore on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
