Crl.O.P.No.19925 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 324, 427 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.144 of 2022 seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant regarding land dispute already existing between them and for cutting mango trees in the agricultural land, due to which, the petitioner scolded the defacto complainant in filthy language, assaulted him with wooden log, threatened him with dire consequences and caused injuries to him and also broken the windows' glass. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioner has attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. He would further submit that the injured has discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim has discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
