4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner along with another had stolen the copper wilding coil and iron core sheets which belongs to the TNEB office to the tune of Rs.40,00,000/- and escaped from the scene of occurrence. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also gravity of the offence committed by the petitioner, this court of the view that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is very much required in this case and hence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
