Crl.O.P.Nos.19954, 19958 & 19939 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b), 323, 324, 353 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.278 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 02.08.2022 at about 11 a.m. in Attur Thasildhar Office, peace committee meeting was conducted by the officials regarding Chariot festival of Sri Mariyamman Temple of Selliymbalaiyam Village. After the peace committee meeting, outside the Thasildhar Office, one group headed by one Gopi and another group headed by one Arivalagan had a wordy quarrel. Due to which, they assaulted each others and scolded the government officials in filthy language and prevented them from discharging their duty and made a life threat to them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that due to wordy quarrel, the accused persons belonging to one group assaulted the other group. They abused the government officials in filthy language and prevented them from discharging their duty. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the
