Crl.O.P.No.20216 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Section 379 of IPC in Crime No.166 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. There are totally two accused involved in this case, in which, the petitioner is arrayed as A1. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with another has stolen the batteries from the lorry of the defacto complainant worth about Rs.24,000/-. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with another has stolen the batteries from the lorry of the defacto complainant worth about Rs.24,000/-. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Chengalpattu on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two blood sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to
