The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 341, 147, 148, 294(b), 324, 379 and 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.488 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that when the defacto complainant was walking on the road, the petitioners waylaid the defacto complainant and abused him in filthy language. When the same was question by the defacto complainant's uncle, the petitioners attacked his uncle with iron rod and also alleged to have snatched 2 ½ Sovereigns of gold chain from the defacto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that there is a case in counter registered as against the defacto complainant. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners waylaid the defacto complainant and picked up quarrel with him. When the same was question by the defacto complainant's uncle, the petitioners attacked his uncle with iron rod and also alleged to have snatched 2 ½ Sovereigns of gold chain from the defacto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the fact that there is a case in counter as against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Tiruvallur on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the
