3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submits that the petitioners waylaid the defacto complainant and demanded to give Rs.10,000/- and they were transferred about of Rs.9,200/- through Google pay from the defacto complainant's mobile phone. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and also the serious offence committed by the petitioner this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
