The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offence punishable under Sections 406 and 420 of I.P.C, in Crime No.265 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused persons approached the defacto complainant and stated that they are having an extreme powerful object which will fetch good profits and demanded a sum of Rs.30 lakhs from the defacto complainant. The defacto complainant also paid the said sum. Thereafter, the accused persons gave a bag with bricks and instructed to open after three hours. Thereafter, it was found that the defacto complainant was cheated. Hence, the complaint.

3. It is seen from the records that this is the third anticipatory bail petition filed by the petitioner. The earlier petitions filed by the petitioner were dismissed. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he is ready and willing to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed on him.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that there is no change of circumstances after the previous dismissal orders passed on merits. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the bad antecedents of the petitioner and that there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
