Crl.O.P.No.20292 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 447, 294(b) and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.645 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a land dispute between the petitioners and the defacto complainant, due to which, the petitioners illegally trespassed in the defacto complainant's property and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, threatened him and also caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners illegally trespassed in the defacto complainant's property and abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and also threatened him. He would further submit that the injured had sustained simple injury. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by both counsel and also the fact that the injured had sustained simple injury, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate -II, Ponneri on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand
