Crl.O.P.No.20326 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC in Crime No.215 of 2022 seek anticipatory bail.

2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant's son Rajasundar was fell in love with one Keerthana and thereafter there was misunderstanding between them and they got separated. While so, victim girl's Advocate along with petitioners who were family friends of the victim girl were trespassed into the room of the defacto complainant's son attacked, abused and threatened him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there was a case in counter. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioners along with victim girl's Advocate attacked and threatened the
