3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioners herein involved in criminal conspiracy with the accused persons and fabricated the legal heir certificate to grab the alleged property of the defacto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the involvement of the petitioners in the alleged crime, this Court finds that the custodial interrogation of the petitioners is very much required. Hence, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed.
