The petitioner, who apprehends arrest for the alleged offence under Sections 457 and 380 IPC in Crime No.306 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant, who is running N.S.K Security Service lodged a complaint before the respondent police alleging that the petitioner along with other accused robbed five aluminium sheets belong to the company, to which the defacto complainant gave protection. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is arrayed as A4 and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with other accused robbed five aluminium sheets belong to the company, to which the defacto complainant gave protection. He would further submit that A1 to A3 were already arrested and remanded to judicial custody and the properties were recovered by the respondent police. However, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions:-

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Chengalpattu on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further
