The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 324 & 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.257 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant lodged the complaint before the respondent police alleging that the petitioners along with other accused teased his relative girl by singing songs. When the same was questioned by the defacto complainant, the petitioners along with other accused abused him in filthy language and assaulted him with hands, stones and threatened with dire consequences.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
