When this matter was taken up for consideration, the learned counsel from service and the retirement benefits were also paid to him and hence, nothing survives for adjudication.

submissions so made on the side of the respondent. According to him, the respondent has not paid the entire retirement benefits to the petitioner, as claimed by him.

4.Recording the above submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, this contempt petition is closed, leaving it open to the petitioner to approach the authority with the required documents for considering his claim.
