Crl.O.P.No.20643 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.106 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant is working in the petrol bunk and the petitioner went to the petrol bunk and asked the defacto complainant to fill fuel for his two wheeler, but the defacto complainant refused to do so. Due to which there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant and the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital on 20.08.2022. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Veppanthattai, Perambalur District on
