Crl.O.P.Nos. 20697 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 354(D), 465, 469, 506(ii) IPC in Crime No.241 of 2022, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant, who is the mother of the victim, lodged a complaint before the respondent police alleging that the petitioner misbehaved with her daughter, forcefully pulled her hand, scolded her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences and uploaded her photos in the social media. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner misbehaved with the daughter of the defacto complainant, forcefully pulled her hand, scolded her in filthy language and threatened her with dire consequences and uploaded her photos in the social media. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above facts and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner shall file an undertaking affidavit before the Trial Court that he will not indulge in any similar offence further and on such filing, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Chidambaram, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two blood related sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of
