505(2) of IPC in crime No.78 of 2022 on the file of the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that in a public meeting organized by the Hindu Munnani, as an office bearer of Hindu Munnani, the petitioner made a statement that, Sri Rangam Ranganathar Temple is a holy one, but near the entrance of the temple a statue of a person who is an atheist has been erected with the words “who believes in god is a fool, who workship God is a barbarian and who propagates about god is a rascal” and since the statue and the words hurt the sentiments of the hindus, the same has to be demolished. Hence, the case.

3. It is seen that the petitioner had spoken hate speech to remove the statue of Periyar. He also belongs to one political party. That speech was up-loaded in the you-tube and it became viral in social media.

4. However, considering the period of incarceration by the petitioner from the date of his arrest i.e.15.08.2022, this Court is

[g] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 229A IPC.
