G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 457 and 380 of IPC in Crime No.296 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 17.08.2022, the defacto complainant went to her relative's house and stayed there itself. On the next day, she returned back to her house , she found that her house door was broken and cash for a sum of Rs.9,100/- and ½ sovereigns of stud and 3 sovereigns of chain were missing from her house. On enquiry, she came to know that the petitioners were committed theft of cash and gold ornaments. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the petitioners are daughter-in-law and son of the defacto complainant respectively. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
