Crl.O.P.No.20810 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioners who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.391 of 2022, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that both the petitioners and defacto complainant are residing in the same village and relatives. While so, on 22.08.2022 the defacto complainant was going to fetch water in street tap, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant in filthy language, hence, the defacto complainant communicated the alleged incident to her husband as a consequence, the defacto complainant's husband questioned the petitioners as to why they abused her wife in the street. At that time, there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioners and the defacto complainant's husband, due to which, the petitioners assaulted him with deadly weapons, threatened them with dire consequences and also caused injuries to them. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that there was a case in counter. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners attacked the defacto complainant and caused injuries. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
