Crl.O.P.No.21161 of 2022

G.K.ILANTHIRAIYAN, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 294(b) and 353 of IPC in Crime No.337 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that one Sundarapandiyam who is the District Manager, TASMAL lodged a complaint against the petitioner along with others stating that they abused him in filthy language and obstructed him while discharging his official duty in the TASMAL BAR tender process. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner along with others abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and obstructed him while discharging his official duty in the TASMAC BAR tender process. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the submissions made by both counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Poonamalle on condition that the petitioners shall execute separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
