A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 355 of IPC and Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002 in Crime No.168 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that due to matrimonial dispute, the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant, assaulted her and also beaten her with slippers. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and due a matrimonial dispute, a false complaint has been given by the defacto complainant. Therefore, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent would submit that the petitioner has abused the defacto complainant, assaulted her and also beaten her with slippers. He would further submit that the injured has been treated as an in-patient and discharged on 18.08.2022. Therefore, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.2, Mettur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the
