3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that it is a case and case in counter and there is no specific overt act against the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the accused persons including petitioner herein attacked the defacto complainant and his friends and caused grievous injuries and they were immediately hospitalized and one among them was succumbed to injuries. He would further that the petitioner is having specific overt act like other accused persons, she attacked the deceased with wooden log and sustained grievous injuries and also assaulted the other accused and caused injuries. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel and there is a specific overt act against the petitioner,
