Crl.O.P.No.21295 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 341, 324 and 506(2) of IPC in Crime No.174 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that, since the de-facto complainant and his relative questioned the illicit affair of the petitioner, she had instigated other accused to assault the de-facto complainant.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the de-facto complainant and his party harassed the petitioner and when it was questioned, they have given false complaint. He would further submit that, as per the prosecution, the victim has been discharged from the hospital and the accused, who was arrested has been granted bail. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent would submit that, on the instructions of the petitioner, other accused person has assaulted the de-facto complainant. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsels. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, i am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on her appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.II, Mannargudi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the
