5. In reply, the learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is in custody from 21.07.2022 and major part of the investigation is over. He would further submit that he is also ready to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government and prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Merely, because the petitioner has deposited the said amount, it would not amount to admission of his guilt. Therefore, it is open to the trial Court to deal with the case independently.

Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel and also taking note of the fact that the petitioner has come forward to deposit an amount of Rs.25,000/- to any welfare scheme of the Government, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
