Crl.O.P.No.21453 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner/A2 who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 427, 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC and Section 4 of the Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act 2002 r/w Section 3 of the Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damages and Loss) Act in Crime No.282 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant sent a representation to form a Milk Society in Devanur Village. The Officials of Milk Society had came to the said Village and asked opinion to the persons who are sitting in front of the Panchayat Board Office and at that time, the petitioner and along with others in inebriated condition, came there and abused the defacto complainant and intimidated her and also assaulted her with hands. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would also submit that the petitioner is prepared to comply with any stringent condition imposed by this Court and he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that there exists a previous enmity between the petitioner and the de-facto complainant and due to which, the petitioner along with the other accused had abused the de-facto complainant in a filthy language and attacked her, due to which, the de-facto complainant sustained injuries. He would also submit that the injured have been discharged from the hospital and there is no previous case as against the petitioner. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and also considering the fact that the injured has been discharged from the
