The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 153A(1)(a) & 505(2) of IPC in Crime No.228 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is a present MLA of Mettur constituency and it is alleged that he made speech by promoting enmity between two groups of different caste. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. Due to political motive, false complaint has been registered as against the petitioner herein. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor would submit that the petitioner made speech by promoting enmity between two groups of different caste. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Mettur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
