Crl.O.P.No.22033 of 2022

A.D.JAGADISH CHANDIRA, J.

The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 7(3) of the Lotteries (Regulation) Act in Crime No.216 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other were found in possession of banned lottery tickets. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He would further submit that the lottery tickets have not been recovered from the petitioner and it is only recovered from A1. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner along with other were found in possession of banned lottery tickets. He would further submit that A1 was fled away from the scene of occurrence and there is no previous case pending against the petitioner. Hence he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5.Taking into consideration the facts and submissions of the learned Counsel, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions;

6.Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthangarai on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
