The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 147, 148, 324, 506(ii) @ 147, 148 506(ii) and 307 of IPC in Crime No.99 of 2022, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant lodged a complaint before the respondent police alleging that on 16.08.2022, when the defacto complainant and his associates were waiting in Ekattor Railway Station for their friend, at that time, the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant and his associates with stones and knife. Due to which the defacto complainant sustained grievous injuries on head Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. He would further submit that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Therefore, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the petitioner along with other accused persons attacked the defacto complainant with knife on his head, due to which he sustained grievous injuries. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the above fact and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the victim discharged from the hospital, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned
